

CURRICULUM VITAE

1. Full name and date

Name Räsänen, Tuomas
Date of the CV 5.5.2021

2. Education and degrees awarded

- Title of Docent: Environmental and animal history, Department of European and World History, University of Turku, Finland, April 2018
- Doctor of Philosophy, Faculty of Humanities, University of Turku, Finland; major subject European and World History, 4 November 2015

3. Current position

- Associate Professor (tenure tracked), Department of Geographical and Historical Studies, University of Eastern Finland, Finland.

4. Current research projects

- Responsible leader at the research project Humans and Ticks in the Anthropocene, funded by the Academy of Finland, from August 1 2020 until July 31 2024.
- Senior researcher at the research project Living with the Baltic Sea in a Changing climate: Environmental Heritage and the Circulation of Knowledge, funded by the Academy of Finland, from August 1 2018 until July 31 2022
- Senior researcher at research project Culture of Unsustainability: Animal Industries and the Exploitation of Animals in Finland since the Late Nineteenth Century, funded by the Academy of Finland, from August 1 2019 until July 31 2023.

5. Scientific and societal impact of research

- Scientific publications related to environmental history:
  - Doctoral dissertation (monograph)
  - 4 edited scientific books
  - 18 peer-reviewed scientific articles
  - 13 other scientific articles
- About 20 academic presentations internationally and 20 presentation nationally
- Numerous articles, presentations and lectures intended for the general public
- Supervised 2 doctoral thesis (environmental history)
- Supervisor of 2 doctoral candidates (environmental history)