The 8th European Society for Environmental History
Biennial Conference

Versailles, France
30 June – 3 July 2015
PROGRAMME AT A GLANCE

TUESDAY, 30 JUNE
11:00 – 17:00  Registration desk open
14:00 – 15:30  Session 1
15:30 – 16:00  Coffee Break
16:00 – 17:30  Session 2
18:00 – 19:30  Welcome Reception (Espace Richaud, 78 Boulevard de la Reine)

WEDNESDAY, 1 JULY
09:30 – 10:30  Session 3
10:30 – 11:00  Coffee Break
11:00 – 12:30  Session 4
12:30 – 14:00  Lunch Break
14:00 – 15:30  Session 5
16:00 – 17:30  Plenary Lecture (Montansier Theater, 13 Rue des Réservoirs)
18:00 – 19:30  ESEH Ordinary General Meeting (Montansier Theater, 13 Rue des Réservoirs)

THURSDAY, 2 JULY
09:30 – 10:30  Session 6
10:30 – 11:00  Coffee Break
11:00 – 12:30  Session 7
12:30 – 14:00  Lunch Break
14:00 – 17:00  Field trips
17:30 – 19:00  Roundtable Plenary (Bertin Amphitheater)

FRIDAY, 3 JULY
09:30 – 10:30  Session 8: Poster Session
10:30 – 11:00  Coffee Break
11:00 – 12:30  Session 9
12:30 – 14:00  Lunch Break
14:00 – 15:30  Session 10
15:30 – 16:00  Coffee Break
16:00 – 17:30  Session 11
17:30 – 18:00  Book Auction
19:00 – 21:00  Conference Dinner (La Petite Venise, Jardins du château de Versailles)
All regular sessions take place in the Sophie Germain building.

Room 1 = G001
Room 2 = G002
Room 3 = G007
Room 4 = G201
Room 5 = G203
Room 6 = G204
Room 7 = G205
Room 8 = G207
Room 9 = G209
Room 10 = G210

---

Book Exhibit and Posters

Don’t forget to visit the publishers’ tables and display of posters in Fermat Hall. The exhibit is open at the following times:

- Tuesday, 13:00-17:00
- Wednesday, 09:00-17:00
- Thursday, 09:00-13:00
- Friday, 09:00-13:00
TUESDAY, 30 JUNE

Session 1
14:00 – 15:30

1-A Weather and Food during the Great War – Impacts, Adaptation and Vulnerability regarding Agro Food Chains 1914–1918
Room 1
Organizer: Daniel Burkhard, University Bern
Session Chair: Richard Tucker, University of Michigan

From the Sea to Paris and Back: On the Interdependence of Economic Warfare, Weather Conditions and the Submarine Campaign 1916-1917
Daniel Marc Segesser, University Bern

Combating a “Hideous Reality”: Saving Children, Nutrition, and Relief in Central Europe During and After the Great War.
Paul Niebrzydowski, Ohio State University

Weather and War – Economic and Social Vulnerability in Switzerland at the end of the First World War
Daniel Burkhard

1-B Rivers and Waterscapes in the Pre-modern World
Room 2
Session Chair: Martin Schmid, Alpen-Adria-Universität Klagenfurt

Drava and Sava River Floods in Preindustrial Times
Hrvoje Petrić, University of Zagreb

Two Kingdoms, Two Marshlands, Two Early Modern trajectories: Desiccation in England’s fenlands and New Spain’s Basin of Mexico Compared.
Vera Candiani, Princeton University

Between the Droughts and the Floods: Climate Variability in the Bogota Plateau, New Kingdom of Granada, 1690-1810
Katherinne Mora Pacheco, Giselle National University of Colombia

From Discovery to Management: Monarchy and Water in New French Territories (Canada – Alsace, 17th - 18th Centuries)
Benjamin Furst, Université de Haute Alsace/Université de Montréal

1-C Colonies and Colonialism
Room 3
Session Chair: Inês Amorim, University of Porto

The Concept of Climate Improvement: Colonialism and Environment in German South West Africa
Harri Siiskonen, University of Eastern Finland

Coal or Colonies? The Net Ecological Appropriation of the UK’s Trade Activities with the Periphery in the 19th Century
Dimitrios Theodoridis, Gothenburg University

The Use of Colonial Land-Grant Documents and GIS to Reconstruct Soil Carbon Sequestration in Sixteenth-Century Mexico
Andrew Suyter, Louisiana State University

Paradise Found: Puerto Rico, Where the Metropolis Justifies its Way
Julio Figueroa-Colon, Fundacion Sendero Verde

1-D Disasters: Perception, Impact and Management
Room 4
Session Chair: Julia Lajus, National Research University Higher School of Economics, St. Petersburg

Disaster Management in the Holy Roman Empire on the Territory of Present-Day Slovenia and Its Surroundings in the 16th and 17th Centuries
Žiga Zwitter, University of Ljubljana

Katja Doose, University of Tuebingen

The History of Flood Control Measures on Mountain Torrents in the Alps: The Example of the Gürbe (Switzerland)
Melanie Salvisberg, University of Bern

1-E Roundtable: Writing an Environmental History of Europe
Room 5
Organizer: Corey Ross, University of Birmingham
Moderator: Frank Uekotter, University of Birmingham

Participants: Eva Jakobsson, University of Stavanger
Geneviève Massard-Guilbaud, EHESS
Leos Jelecek, Charles University, Prague
Klaus Gestwa, Tübingen University
Marc Elie, CNRS
Simone Neri Serneri, University of Siena
TUESDAY, 30 JUNE
Session 1
14:00 – 15:30

1-F Forestry Specialists in the Long 19th century and Their Understanding of Forest Ecology
Room 6
Organizer: Anastasia Fedotova, Russian Academy of Science
Session Chair: David Moon, University of York
The 19th century debates on the impact of deforestation in the Russian empire
Marina Loskutova, National Research University
Life and environmental sciences in the Imperial St.
Petersburg Forestry Institute
Anastasia Fedotova
The International Union of Forest Research Organisations and the debate about forest-water-relations
Christian Lotz, Herder-Institut in Marburg

1-G Good or Evil? The Environmental History of Dictatorships. The Case of East-Central Europe in the Twentieth Century
Room 7
Organizer: Viktor Pál, WU Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration/New Europe College Bucharest and Simo Laakkonen, University of Turku/Södertörn University
Session Chair: Ulrike Plath, University of Tallinn
Climate-Driven Change of Arable Lands in the Great Hungarian Plain over the Last Century
Pinke Zsolt, University of Pécs
New Insights to the Environmental History of Czechoslovakia: The Case of Water Management, 1948-1989
Štanzel Arnošt, Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München
An Addict to Growth. Water Pollution and Water Protection in Hungary Under State Socialism
Viktor Pál

1-H Anti-nuclearProtests and the Common History of Peace and Environmental Movements
Room 8
Session Chair: Frank Zelko, University of Vermont
Organic Farmers, German Vintners, and the Atomic Monster of Seabrook: A Trans-Atlantic History of Social Activism and Nuclear Power from New England to West Germany
David Smith, University of Texas at Arlington
Peace, Green and Antinuclear activism in the 1980s – Redefining Nature and Culture
Peter Cox, University of Chester
Environmental NGOs: Co-production of Scientific Knowledge and Political Legitimacy
Nina Kruglikova, University of Oxford

1-I Culture, Tradition and Environment: Investigations in Literature and Epigraphs of 4th-18th century Indian Subcontinent
Room 9
Organizer: Mayank Kumar, Nehru Memorial Museum and Library
Session Chair: Jagdish Lal Dawar, Mizoram University
Waterscapes of Desert: A Study in the Hydrology and Sociology of Step-wells and Johara of 13th-17th Century Rajasthan, India
Mayank Kumar, Nehru Memorial Museum & Library
Journey on Clouds: Traversing across Varied Landscapes in Early India
O. P. Singh, University of Delhi
Intersecting Subistence Strategies: Defining Agricultural Landscape in Pre-colonial Andhra
Neeraj Sahay, University of Delhi

1-J Sea, Sewage, and Sun: New Perspectives on the Environmental History of the Beach
Room 10
Organizer: Elsa Devienne, EHESS/Université Paris Ouest
Session Chair: Arielle Helmick, Rachel Carson Center
“Do You Want To Go To The Seaside?”: Beaches as Spaces of Leisure 19th Century America
Angelika Möller, Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität
Coastal Access as a Democratic Right: Civil Rights Protests Along the Segregated Great Lakes Shoreline, 1960-1964
Sara Fingal, Michigan State University
Building a Beach for the Modern City: Urban Planning and the Making of New York and Los Angeles’ beaches (1930s-1970s)
Elsa Devienne
TUESDAY, 30 JUNE
Coffee Break
15:30 – 16:00

Session 2
16:00 – 17:30

2-A Environmental Histories of the First World War: The World beyond Europe

Room 1
Organizer: Richard Tucker, University of Michigan
Session Chair: Richard Tucker

Strategic Mineral Extraction and Environment in Europe’s Empires
  Corey Ross, University of Birmingham, UK
Soft Wheat, Big Farms: French Agricultural Policies in Wartime Morocco
  Graham Cornwell, Georgetown University, USA
Furrows into Flames: Global Food Production in the First World War
  Tait Keller, Rhodes College, USA

2-B Great Floods and Societies in Space and Time

Room 2
Organizer: Andrea Kiss, Vienna University of Technology
Session Chair: Chantal Camenisch, University of Bern

Hidden behind Magdalena: Floods in 1342 and 1343 in Europe
  Andrea Kiss, Silvia Enzi, Ursula Bieber; Kathleen Pribyl, Ioannis Telelis, Dag Retsö, Rudolf Brázdil, Markus Dotterweich, and Günther Bloeschl, Vienna University of Technology
Socio-economic and Cultural Responses to Severe Floods in the Upper Danube Catchment Area during the Late 16th Century
  Christian Rohr, University of Bern
Documentary Evidence of Historical Floods and Extreme Rainfall Events in Sweden 1400-1800
  Dag Retsö, Stockholm University

2-C Legal and Political Activism

Room 3
Session Chair: Stefania Barca, Universidade de Coimbra

  Aloni Omer, Tel-Aviv University
Stockholm 1972 - Beyond the Diplomats. Transnational Activism, Alternative Agendas, and the Construction of a Global Public Sphere
  Jan-Henrik Meyer, NYU Berlin/Humboldt University Berlin
Coral Battleground?: Re-examining the "Save the Reef" campaign in 1960s Australia
  Rohan Lloyd, James Cook University
Antipodean Law: Using Environmental History as a New Critical Methodology in the Analyses of Australian Law
  Nicole Graham, University of Technology Sydney

2-D Premodern Environmental Challenges & Limits

Room 4
Session Chair: Richard Unger, University of British Columbia

Famine, Plague and Urban Development in Fifteenth-century Eastern England
  Kathleen Pribyl, University of East Anglia
The Exploitation of Southern Ireland in the 16th Century for Wild Animal Skins and Fish Exports: the Evidence from Bristol and other UK Port Books 1503 to 1601.
  Kieran Hickey, University College Cork
A Decade of Disaster: Cattle Plague during the 1740s in the Netherlands
  Adam Sundberg, University of Kansas
TUESDAY, 30 JUNE
Session 2
16:00 – 17:30

Session sponsored by RUCHE
Room 5
Organizer: Stéphane Frioux and Charles-François Mathis on behalf of RUCHE
Moderator: Geneviève Massard-Guilbaud, EHESS Paris

Participants:
Corinne Beck, Université de Valenciennes et du Hainaut-Cambrésis
Laurent Coumel, CERCEC, CNRS – EcoGlobReg
Elsa Devienne, EHESS/Université Paris Ouest Naterre
Thomas Le Roux, CRH (EHESS/CNRS)
Raphaël Morera, Université Rennes 2
Alexis Vrignon, University of Poitiers

2-F Cultivation, Chemistry & Consequences
Room 6
Session Chair: Leoš Jeleček, Charles University in Prague

Sugarcane in the Periphery of Ecuador in the 18th Century: Reconstructing the Environmental History of Sugarcane Haciendas in Transition
Petra Machold, Klagenfurt University, Austria

The Late Onset of Energy Transition in Madrid. Urban Supply of Charcoal and Firewood in the 19th Century
Javier Hernando, Autonomous University of Madrid and Gonzalo Madrazo, Complutense University of Madrid

"Kingdom of Cotton": The Social and Environmental Consequences of Cotton Cultivation in Guatemala, (1948-1985)
Patrick Chassé, University of Saskatchewan

Environment and Green Chemistry: An Historical Survey
Jean-Pierre Llored, Linacre College, Oxford University

2-G Good or Evil? The Environmental History of Dictatorships. The Case of the Soviet Union
Room 7
Organizer: Viktor Pál, WU Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration/New Europe College Bucharest and Simo Laakkonen, University of Turku/Södertörn University
Session Chair: Viktor Pál

Strengthened Measures: The Ecological Restructuring of Agriculture in the Russian South, 1924-1929
Stephen Brain, Mississippi State University

Between Pollution and Protection in the Soviet Context: the Soviet Environmental Policy in the mid-1950s - 1960s
Elena Kochetkova, National Research University Higher School of Economics-Saint-Petersburg/University of Helsinki

An Exception that Proves the Rule? Water Pollution and Protection in Lithuanian SSR, 1945-1990
Simo Laakkonen, University of Turku/Södertörn University

2-H Migration, Mobility Networks, and Land Use Change in Pre-industrial Southwest China
Room 8
Organizer: Andrea Janku, SOAS, University of London
Session Chair: Andrea Janku

Networks for the Exploitation of Ore Deposits and the Loss of Forests in the Southwest of Qing China
Nanny Kim, University of Heidelberg

Dragon Cults and Water in Ming period Yunnan
Chun Xu, University of Heidelberg

In-migrants, Hydrotechnologies and Vanishing Lakes, 1500-2000
Yuda Yang, Fudan University

Welcome Reception
18:00 – 19:30
Espace Richaud, 78 Boulevard de la Reine, 78000 Versailles
WEDNESDAY, 1 JULY

Session 3
09:00 – 10:30

3-A Environmental Histories of the Wars of the French Revolution and Napoleon, 1793-1815
Room 1
Organizer: Richard Tucker, University of Michigan
Session Chair: Mauro Agnolotti, University of Florence

- Long-term Effects of the French Occupation (1793-1815) on Environment and Society in Carinthia and Veneto
  Elisabeth Johann, Austrian Forest Association

- Encounters of a Different Kind: The Impact of Regional Militarization on Rice Cultivation in Egypt, 1793-1803
  Zoe Griffith, Brown University

- Towards Modernity: Environmental Dimensions of Disputes during the Napoleonic War in Spain
  Antonio Ortega Santos, University of Granada

- The Waterloo Battlefield and Landscapes of Memorial, 1815-1918
  Ben Anderson and Ian Atherton, University of Keele

3-B Are New Perspectives on Wilderness and Environmental History Possible?
Room 2
Organizer: Mark Stoll, Texas Tech University
Session Chair: Patrick Kupper, Universität Innsbruck

- Knowing, sharing, and experiencing wilderness in a connected world
  Finn Arne Jørgensen, Umeå University

- Nature's Manly Nations: Hunting and Wilderness in the Creation of National Identities in North America and the Nordic Countries
  Mikko Saikku, University of Helsinki

- Rethinking the Place of Wilderness in the American Environmental Movement
  Mark Stoll, Texas Tech University

3-C Bodies, Biomes, and Microbiomes in History
Room 3
Organizer: Marcus Hall, University of Zurich
Session Chair: Peter Alagona, University of California Santa Barbara

- Enteric Disease and the Human Microbiome: A New Frontier in Environmental History
  James Webb, Jr., Colby College

- Thinking Like a Parasite: The Crosby Thesis Revisited
  Marcus Hall

  Floor Haalboom, UMC Utrecht

3-D The Environmental History of Russia
Room 4
Session Chair: David Moon, University of York, UK

- Environment and Russian Colonization of the Kazan Khanate’s Territories (1552-1700)
  Andrei Vinogradov, Kazan Federal University

- Landscapes of Transportation in Russia, 1820-1850 Aleksandra Bekasova, European University at St. Petersburg

- Water Use in the Industrial Cities of Russia (in the end of XIX - beginning of XX centuries)
  Aidar Kalimullin, Kazan Federal University

- The Emergence of Ecology in Kindergartens of the post-Soviet Yakutia
  Carole Ferret, CNRS

3-E Roundtable: Perspectives for Environmental Justice in European Environmental History
Room 5
Organizer: Agnes Kneitz, Renmin University

Participants:
- Rob Emmett, Rachel Carson Center
- Marco Armiento, KTH Stockholm
- Siddhartha Krishnan, Ashoka Trust for Research in Ecology and the Environment
3-F Out of Sight, Out of Mind: Picking Up the Global History of Abandoned Waste
Room 6
Organizer: Simone Müller, University of Freiburg
Session Chair: Anke Bockrei, Universität Innsbruck

"Excrements of Production": Producing, Re-using, and Disposing Industrial Waste in 20th-century Germany
Heike Weber, Bergische Universität Wuppertal
Move it Offshore! On the International Governance of Ocean Dumping in the Long 1970s
Simone Müller
Lisa Ruth Rand, University of Pennsylvania

3-H Natural Hazards in France and the Low Countries
Room 8
Session Chair: Hrvoje Petrić, Université de Lyon/Saint-Etienne

Rural Landscapes in the Meuse Region: A Military Perspective (1300-1850)
Sander Govaerts, Universiteit van Amsterdam
Mortal Fogs: The Case of the Meuse Valley
Alexis Zimmer, Strasbourg University
History of the Avalanche Risk in the Vosges Mountains: Uncommon Sources for a Medium-high Mountain
Florie Giacona, Université de Haute Alsace, CRESAT
Risk, Marginality, and Urban Space: The Role of the Built Environment in the 2003 Paris Heat Wave
Richard Keller, University of Wisconsin-Madison

3-G Good or Evil? The Environmental History of Dictatorships. The Case of Right Wing Governments and Military Juntas in the Twentieth Century
Room 7
Organizer: Viktor Pál, WU Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration/New Europe College Bucharest and Simo Laakkonen, University of Turku/Södertörn University
Session Chair: Simo Laakkonen

Some Environmental aspects of autarky in Fascist Italy
Andrea Fillipo Saba, Istituto nazionale per la storia del movimento di liberazione in Italia
A Survey of the History of Environmental Change in Latin Authoritarian Regimes (Spain, Portugal and Brazil)
Pablo Broto, Corral Centre Maurice Halbwachs (EHESP, Paris) / Universidad de Granada
Damming Rivers for Progress: Dictatorship and Development Projects in the Brazilian Amazon
Nathalia Capellini, Université de Versailles Saint-Quentin-en-Yvelines

3-I Other Tools, Other Narratives Film Showing
Room 9
Organizer: Marco Armiero, KTH Royal Institute of Technology

In the Shadows of Ebola, Gregg Mitman and Sarita Siegel
(25 min., Liberia, USA, UK)
Arresting the Petro-economy: The Unist’ot’en Living Blockade, Leah Temper (23 min., Canada)
The Environmental Humanities Video Dictionary and Justability, the Trailer (KTH Environmental Humanities Laboratory, Sweden)

Coffee Break
10:30 – 11:00
WEDNESDAY, 1 JULY

Session 4
11:00 – 12:30

4-A Parks and Gardens I
Session sponsored by Environment & History
Room 1
Session Chair: M. Gabriella Rienzo, University of Foggia

From the Sun King to the Civic Body: Green Space, Public Health and the Democratization of the Park.
Karen R. Jones, University of Kent
Topiary and Arboreal Metaphors in Royal Propaganda and Court Panegyrics During the Reign of Louis XV
Giulia Pacini, College of William and Mary
French Presidential Huntsings during the Fifth Republic: Between Political and Environmental History.
Alexis Vrignon, University of Poitiers

4-B Technologies of Empire: Networks, Mobilities, and Exchanges in the Nineteenth-Century British Empire
Room 2
Organizer: Ruth Morgan, Monash University
Session Chair: Andrea Gaynor, University of Western Australia

Ecologies and Technologies of Empire: an Environmental History of Telegraphy in Australasia
Ruth Morgan
Industrialists and Economic Botanists: Developing Commodities Frontiers in the 19th Century British World
Jim Clifford, University of Saskatchewan
Lively Technologies and Suspended Animation in the Antipodes, c. 1870s
Rebecca JH Woods, Columbia University

4-C Five Centuries of Climate Change in Canada
Room 3
Organizer: Dagomar Degroot, University of Western Ontario
Session Chair: Graeme Wynn, University of British Columbia

Exploring the Canadian Arctic in a Changing Climate, 1560-1630
Dagomar Degroot
Anticipating Climate Change in New France
Colin Coates, York University
Climatic Challenges During Early French Exploration and Colonization in Canada.
Sam White, The Ohio State University

4-D Werewolves, Sodomy, and Breast Feeding: Trans-Species Relations as Social Problems in Pre-Modern Times
Room 4
Organizer: Ulrike Plath, Tallinn University/Estonian Academy of Sciences
Session Chair: Dolly Jørgensen, Umeå University

Enacting Human-Animal Hybridity: Baltic Werewolves in the 16th and 17th Centuries
Stefan Donecker, Austrian Academy of Sciences
Taking the Ultimate Step – Bestiality as a “horror crime” in Early Modern European Society
Ken Ird, Tartu University
Breast Feeding: Trans-Social and Trans-Species Problems of a Cultural Practice
Ulrike Plath, Tallinn University/Estonian Academy of Sciences

4-E Roundtable: Other Tools, Other Narratives
Room 5
Organizer: Gregg Mitman, University of Wisconsin Madison and Marco Armiero, KTH Royal Institute of Technology
Moderator: Marco Armiero

Participants:
Marco Armiero
Salvatore Paolo De Rosa, Lund University
Felipe Milanez, University of Coimbra
Gregg Mitman
Lea Temper, Autonomous University of Barcelona
Thomas Wild Turolo, film-maker, Italy
WEDNESDAY, 1 JULY
Session 4
11:00 – 12:30

4-F Securing the Environment in Times of War
Room 6
Session Chair: Elena Kochetkova, University of Helsinki
War and Environment: Sherwood Forest and Navy
Building 1660-1670
Sara Morrison, Brescia University College (at University of Western Ontario)
Castles as Drivers of Ecological Strategies; from Forest Degradation to Regeneration, Exploring Resource Management
Twists of Tokugawa Era Japan
Anne McDonald, Sophia University
Tree Cover: Asymmetric Warfare and Militarized Forestry in the Twentieth Century Philippines
Emily K. Brock, Max Planck Institute for the History of Science, Berlin
A War of Words and Ecology: Environmental Securitization during the Kosovo Conflict in 1999 and Its Aftermath
Emma Hakala, University of Helsinki

4-H Charting and Controlling Northern Environments: the political uses of environmental knowledge
Room 8
Organizer: Peder Roberts, KTH Royal Institute of Technology
Session Chair: Janet Martin-Nielsen, Aarhus University
National Parks and the Norweiganization of Svalbard
Peder Roberts, KTH Royal Institute of Technology
Environmental history and the Quest for the Sea Consciousness
Tuomas Räsänen, University of Turku
Arctic environmental knowledge and Arctic stakeholders in recent historical perspective
Lize-Marié van der Watt, Swedish Polar Research Secretariat
Comment
Janet Martin-Nielsen

4-I Experimental Session: Vienna’s urban water network 1683 to present - an interdisciplinary stroll
Room 9
Organizer Gudrun Pollack
Session Chair: Verena Winiwarter
The audience will be invited to a virtual walk through the city of Vienna. Various maps, paintings and photographs of historic and present day situations will illustrate our excursion and guide the way to a variety of waters that shaped the city and were in turn shaped by it. The focus of this virtual exploration is on the relations between different forms of water use, their materializations (e.g. in infrastructures such as weirs or pipelines) and the changes in the urban fabric around them.

Participants: (all from Alpen-Adria University, Klagenfurt)
Sylvia Gierlinger
Friedrich Hauer
Christina Spitzbart-Glasl
Gudrun Pollack

Lunch Break
12:30 – 14:00
WEDNESDAY, 1 JULY
Session 5
14:00 – 15:30

5-A Parks and Gardens II
Session sponsored by Environment & History
Room 1
Session Chair: Christoph Mauch, Rachel Carson Center
Order and Rebellion in the Botanic Garden
Anna Svensson, KTH Royal Institute of Technology
"Save Garden City!": Competing Environmental Histories of 55 Hectares in British Columbia Lisa Powell, University of British Columbia/University of the Fraser Valley
French Political Centralism against Local Environmental Values: The Birth of the Contested Calanques National Park (southern France, 1910-2010)
Nicolas Maughan, Aix-Marseille University

5-B Seeing the Bigger Picture: Integrating Visual Studies and Environmental History
Room 2
Organizer: Jennifer Tucker, Wesleyan University
Session Chair: Gregg Mitman, University of Wisconsin-Madison
Representing Resistance: Visual Culture and Anti-smoke Campaigns in Industrial Britain
Stephen Mosley, Leeds Metropolitan University
Foul Injustice: Photographic Visualizations of Victorian Alkali Waste
Jennifer Tucker, Wesleyan University
Lynda Nead, Birkbeck College

5-C Environmental Thought
Room 3
Session Chair: Eva Jakobsson, University of Stavanger
Meeting the Machine: Industrialization, Human Mind and Changing Views of Nature in 19th Century Swedish Literature
Ann-Sofie Andersson, University of Gothenburg
A Secure Interior: The Ecological Imaginary of Herman Sörgel’s Atlantropa Project
Hollyamber Kennedy, Columbia University
Carson’s Sense of Wonder at 50: The Past, Present, and Future of an Environmental Virtue
Lisa Sideris, Indiana University

5-D "Environmental Justice” and Urban Water Systems (19th-20th century)
Room 4
Organizer: Martin Knoll and Luisa Pichler, University of Salzburg
Session Chair: Martin Knoll, University of Salzburg
Layering a Modern City's Waterscape: a GIS Approach to the Resilience of Decentralized Water Systems after the Implementation of the Antwerp Waterworks (1881)
Ellen Janssens, University of Antwerp
Environmental (In)justice and the Implementation of Centralised Water Infrastructures in the City of Linz (1860s-1910s)
Luisa Pichler, University of Salzburg
Water Supply Improvements, Typhoid Epidemics, and Environmental Inequalities in France (1880s-1930s)
Stéphane Frioux, University of Lyon 2
Comment
Tim Soens, University of Antwerp

5-E Roundtable: Explorations at the Junction of Conservation Biology & Environmental History
Room 5
Organizer: Dolly Jørgensen, Umeå University
Session Moderator: Belinda Stewart-Cox, Zoological Society of London
Participants:
Kate Christen, Smithsonian Conservation Biology Institute
Dolly Jørgensen
Tomasz Samojlik, Polish Academy of Sciences
5-F Modeling: A Research Frontier of Interdisciplinary Environmental History
Room 6
Organizers: Martin Schmid, Alpen-Adria-Universität Klagenfurt and Péter Szabó, Academy of Sciences of the Czech Republic
Session Chair: Geoff Cunfer, University of Saskatchewan

8000 Years of Woodland History: the Potential of Interdisciplinary Models
Peter Szabó
Applying Modeling Techniques to Reconstruct and Simulate the Historical Evolution of Fish Biodiversity of Freshwater Systems
Didier Pont, IRSTEA and Gertrud Haidvogl, University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences
Vienna (BOKU)
Enric Tello, University of Barcelona
Comment
Martin Schmid

5-G The Sixteenth Century as a Turning Point in the Environmental History of Poland and Central Europe
Room 7
Organizer: Adam Izdebski, Jagiellonian University, Krakow
Session Chair: Mateusz Falkowski, New York University

The New Agricultural Landscape of the Sixteenth Century in 'Outer' Europe: the Polish Case and the Wider Context
Adam Izdebski
Livestock Presence in the Royal Forest of Błatowicza since the 16th Century: Environmental and Cultural Implications
Tomasz Samojlik, Polish Academy of Sciences
The Flemish-Dutch settlements in Poland during the Long Sixteenth Century and the Transformation of the Polish Landscape
Rafal Szymtka, Jagiellonian University

5-H Using the Fruits of our Labors: Applications for Environmental History
Room 8
Session Chair: Mikko Saikku, University of Helsinki

On Common Ground: Using Sense of Place to Cultivate Environmental Peace
Vanessa Bible, University of New England, Australia

Contribution of Non-market Valuation to the Preservation of the Cultural Landscapes: the Alto Douro Valley World Heritage Site
Lígia Pinto, Universidade do Minho and Lina Lourenço-Gomes, University of Trás-os-Montes and Alto Douro

Deepening Understandings of Place and World Heritage through Digital Histories
Ann McGrath, Australian National University

Tracing and Making: Landscape Architectural Design Practices and Environmental Historical Methods
Katrina Simon, University of New South Wales

5-I Experimental Session: The barbarization of the air and the anti-war movement during WWI: a tribute to the pacifist and Italian stylist Rosa Genoni on the 100th anniversary of The Hague Women's Conference
Room 9
Organizer: Roberto Albanese

The workshop will compare in an active way (including slide presentations, small theatrical performances, and paint show) historical research results, artistic productions and experiences on active memory and landscaping.

Participants: Rosalba Bisogno, Giuseppe Maria Longoni, Roberto Albanese

Plenary Lecture
16:00-17:30
ESEH Ordinary General Meeting
17:45 – 19:00
Montansier Theater, 13 Rue des Réservoirs

ESEH Council of Regional Representatives Meeting &
Global Environment Editorial Board Meeting (Room 10) 19:00 – 20:00
THURSDAY, 2 JULY

Session 6
09:00 – 10:30

6-A New Perspectives on French Forest History
Room 1
Organizer: Richard Keyser, University of Wisconsin-Madison
Session Chair: Peter Szabó, Academy of Sciences of the Czech Republic

A Research Priority: Assessing the Sustainability of Traditional Management in French Woodlands
Richard Keyser
Southwestern French Forests as Cultural Landscapes in the Modern Era
Sébastien Poublon, University of Toulouse Jean-Jaurès
Pigs, Pasturage, and a Pair of Clogs? Claims of Forest Deterioration during the French Revolution
Kieko Matteson, University of Hawai`i at Mānoa
Comment
Martine Chalvet, Aix Marseille Université

6-B Technologies, Infrastructures and the Environment in Colonial Africa (I): Urban Perspectives
Room 2
Organizer: Ute Hasenöhrl, University of Innsbruck
Session Chair: Maurit W. Ertsen, Delft University of Technology

"Beacons of Progress"? The Establishment of Electric Lighting Systems in the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan and its Impact on Colonial Life and Rule
Ute Hasenöhrl
Measuring Progress in Megawatt? Discourses on Development and Electricity Infrastructures in Tanzania, 1906–1980
Jonas van der Straeten, Technische Universität Berlin
No Junk Sinking in ShanTung, German Water Infrastructure in Kiautschou, 1897-1914
Agnes Kneitz, Renmin University of China

6-C Sustainability in Industrializing Land-use and Food Systems? What we Learn from Applying Socio-Ecological Indicators to Historical Periods
Room 3
Organizer: Simone Gingrich, Alpen-Adria University Klagenfurt
Session Chair: Geoff Cunfer, University of Saskatchewan

Centennial perspectives on European land-use change
Simone Gingrich, Alpen-Adria University Klagenfurt
Biomass consumption as fuel in Spain. A long term perspective (1850-2010)
Iñaki Iriarte Goñi, University of Zaragoza
The Socio-ecological transition on a crop scale. Spanish olive orchards in a historical perspective
Juan Infante-Amate, Univeristy Pablo de Olavide
A historical perspective on sustainable development: can 'modern' multi-indicator measurement methods contribute to historical research? An exploration on indicators related to food availability 1850 - 2010
Lilianne Laan, Eindhoven University of Technology

6-D The Environmental Legacy of the Ottoman Empire
Room 4
Session Chair: Kathleen Pribyl, University of East Anglia

Environmental Impact of the War: Ottoman-European Conflict along the Danube in the Early Modern Time
Maria Baramova, Sofia University
Fortification, Defense and the Role of the Environment in Upcoming Military Cartography. The Case of Vienna in the Aftermath of the Ottoman Siege of 1529
Christoph Sonnlechner, Vienna City Archives
The Role and Importance of Pious Foundations (Awqaf) in Constructing Irrigation Infrastructure in Ottoman Era Upper Thrace (Eastern Balkans)
Grigor Boykov, Sofia University
Where Warfare and Environment Happily Meet: Landscape, Settlement Network and Livestock Breeding in the Aftermath of the Ottoman Conquest
Mariya Kiprovskia, Sofia University
6-E Roundtable: The Earth, History and Us. The Anthropocene and Environmental History
Room 5
Organizer: Jean-Baptiste Fressoz, CNRS, Centre Alexandre Koyré
Moderator: Jean-Baptiste Fressoz
Participants:
Christophe Bonneuil, CNRS, Centre Alexandre Koyré
David Edgerton, King’s College, London
Jean-Baptiste Fressoz
Joachim Radkau, Bielefeld
Egle Rindzeviciute, Sciences Po
Paul Warde, Cambridge University

6-F Rivers and Waterscapes in the Modern World
Room 6
Session Chair: Nicolas Maughan, Aix-Marseille University

‘It is Getting Worse’: Flood Control in the Himalayas
During the 20th Century
Eric Strahorn, Florida Gulf Coast University
Ole Sparenberg, Universität des Saarlandes
History of Water in North-East India: Water Governance in Mizoram since the 19th Century
Jagdish Lal Daar, Mizoram University, Aizawl

6-G Landscape Transformations in Long-term Perspectives
Room 7
Session Chair: Giacomo Parinello, Louisiana State University
Expansion or Eclipse? The Thames Fisheries in the Later Middle Ages.
Jim Galloway, Independent Researcher
Making a Living in Forbidding Terrain: Terracing Volcanic Mountain Slopes on Madeira Island
Sandra Kiesow, University of Kiel
A Tale of Two Forests: Comparing the Historical Patterns of Deforestation and Conservation in the Brazilian Atlantic and Amazon Forests - 1930-2014
José-Augusto Pádua, Federal University of Rio de Janeiro

6-H Urbanization and Conservation: Uneasy Allies?
Room 8
Organizer: Claudia Leal, Universidad de los Andes, Bogota
Session Chair: Jane Carruthers, University of South Africa

Triggering Conservation: Tourism Infrastructures and Nature Reserves in the Eastern Alps
Wilko Graf von Hardenberg, University of Wisconsin-Madison
Claudia Leal
Plenitude, scarcity and landscape protection. National Parks and water supply in late twentieth-century Britain
Matthew Kelly, University of Southampton
The Impact of Second-home Tourism on the Environment of the Apennines. The Case Study of Bologna Province (1945–today)
Matteo Troilo, University of Bologna

6-I The Early Globalization of Mining Pollution
Conflicts: Spain and Portugal, 19th-20th centuries
Room 9
Organizer: Juan Diego Pérez Cebada, University of Huelva
Session Chair: Inês Amorim, University of Porto

Smoke in the Mouth: the Word’s Market in the Spanish Smoke Wars
Patricia Garrido Camacho and Juan Diego Pérez Cebada, University of Huelva
Environmental Mining Conflicts and Technological Progress in the Guadiana Basin (1860-1960)
Paulo Guimarães, University of Évora
An Economic Model of Social and Environmental Conflict with an Application to the Iberian Pyrite Belt (19th to 20th century)
Miguel Rocha de Sousa, University of Évora and Annette Bongardt, European University Institute, Fiesole

Coffee Break
10:30 – 11:00
THURSDAY, 2 JULY

Session 7
11:00 – 12:30

7-A Politics and Science in International Environmental Programmes, 1960s – 1990s
Room 1
Organizer: Simone Schleper, Maastricht University
Session Chair: Simone Schleper

UNESCO and the World Heritage Convention
Andrea Rehling, Leibniz-Institute of European History

Simone Schleper, Maastricht University

Cold- or Eco-Warriors? The NATO Environmental Programme, 1969-1979
Simone Turchetti, University of Manchester

Hans Schouwenburg, Maastricht University

7-B Technologies, Infrastructures and the Environment in Colonial Africa (II): Rural Perspectives
Room 2
Organizer: Ute Hasenöhrl, University of Innsbruck
Session Chair: Ute Hasenöhrl

"An Ant’s Nest Could Bring Down a Hill": On Human Agency and Environment in Colonial Irrigation in the Gezira, Sudan
Maurits W. Ertsen, Delft University of Technology
Forest Management and the Cork Boom in French Colonial Algeria, 1851-1871
Andrea Williams, Colorado State University
Agrarian Change and Industrialization in Egypt, 1800-1950
Peter Bent, University of Massachusetts, Amherst

7-C Water for Energy: Socioecological Dimensions of Hydropower Production
Room 3
Organizer: Giacomo Parrinello, Louisiana State University
Session Chair: Martin Schmid, Alpen-Adria Universität Klagenfurt

Wheels, mills, and turbines: waterpower and industrial development in the Po River Basin
Giacomo Parrinello

The dawn of hydroelectricity in Lower Austria – an envirotechnical analysis
Angelika Schoder, Alpen-Adria Universität Klagenfurt

Riparian forests and hydropower on the Slovakian and Hungarian Danube
Arnošt Stanzel, Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität Munich

Water as a source of geographical imaginations and energy production: the territorialities of the Euro-Canadians and Atikamek people in the St-Maurice River valley (1850-1930)
Stéphane Castonguay, Université du Québec à Trois-Rivières

7-D Understanding the Environment in the 19th century
Room 4
Session Chair: Robert Gray, University of Winchester

The gardener meteorologist: Reconstructing the rainfall series of Chatsworth House (1760-present)
Neil Macdonald, University of Liverpool

Aristocratic landscape, politics and biodiversity between old regime and 19th century
Tigrino Vittorio Università del Piemonte Orientale

Monarchy and Environment in the Dutch Delta 1806 – 1848
Antoon Bosch, Dutch Open University
Perceptions, regulations and measurements of surface water quality in France, 1854-1964. Example of the city of Versailles
Tatiana Dmitrieva, University of Pierre & Marie Curie, Metis
THURSDAY, 2 JULY
Session 7
11:00 – 12:30

7-E Roundtable: The European Gaze and Other Foreign Accounts Upon Brazilian Biomes: Intersections between Environmental History, History of Science, and Agronomic Sciences
Room 5
Organizer: Jo Klanovicz, Universidade Estadual do Centro Oeste do Paraná (UNICENTRO)
Moderator: Eunice Nodari, Universidade Federal de Santa Catarina (UFSC)
Participants:
Jo Klanovicz
Eunice Nodari
Samira Perucchi Moretto, Universidade Federal de Santa Catarina
Lise Sedrez, Federal University of Rio de Janeiro

7-F Protecting and "Rehabilitating" Landscapes
Room 6
Session Chair: Brian Black, Penn State Altoona

Keeping Palestine Clean: Waste and Sewage Challenges during the British Mandate of Palestine
Yaron Jorgen Balslev, Tel Aviv University
From Dust Storms and Sand-drift to Rehabilitating the Land? Agriculture, Conservation and State Science in Australia’s Mallee lands
Ruth Ford, La Trobe University
First Aid Engineering and Limnological Applications: The Origins of Lake Aeration in 20th Century Europe
Paula Schönach, University of Helsinki
A "Steel Town" in the Southern Italy: Development and Environment in Taranto after World War II
Salvatore Romeo

7-G Understanding Sustainability and its Limits in Pre-Modern Europe
Room 7
Organizer: Richard C. Hoffmann, York University
Session Chair: Richard W. Unger, University of British Columbia

Improvements in Dike Building in the Pre-modern North Sea Area: an Environmental and Social Perspective (13th - 18th centuries).
Tim Soens, University of Antwerp
Maintaining Fertility in Medieval Mediterranean Farming: Ideas and Advice of Petrus de Crescentis (ca.1305) and Gabriel Alonzo de Herrera (1513)
Richard C Hoffmann, York University
Is There a Right Way to Keep Soils Fertile? Early Modern Agricultural Writers and their Concepts of Sustainable Soil Management
Verena Winiwarter, Alpen-Adria Universität Klagenfurt

7-H Telling Environmental Stories: Memory, Place and Change
Room 8
Organizer: Katie Holmes, La Trobe University, Melbourne
Session Chair: Andrea Gaynor, University of Western Australia

Places Under the Skin: Oral History Accounts of Greening the Los Angeles River
Tilly Hinton, University of Technology Sydney
Regret and Resilience: Adapting to Environmental Change
Katie Holmes, La Trobe University
"Rising, red ground": Responses to Soil in a Farming Community
Karen Twigg, La Trobe University

7-I Other Tools, Other Narratives Film Showing
Room 9
Organizer: Marco Armiero, KTH Royal Institute of Technology

Toxic Amazon (64 min., Brazil, 2011)
The Guarani Struggle (7 min., Brazil, 2012)

Lunch Break
12:30 – 14:00
THURSDAY, 2 JULY

Field Trips
14:00 – 17:00
Pre-registration required

All participants will meet their field trip leaders at 1.30 pm in front of the reception desk.

Trip 1: Environmental History of the Louvre

Trip 2: Environmental History of the Palace of Versailles

Trip 3: The Domain of Rambouillet, Biodiversity and natural heritage

Trip 4: The Valée de Chevreuse Natural Park, Cultural heritage and nature

Trip 5: The Museum National of Port Royal, a spiritual garden

Trip 6: The Potager du Roi at Versailles, a laboratory for the management of nature
THURSDAY, 2 JULY
Roundtable Plenary
17:30 – 19:00
Bertin Amphitheater

In recognition of the 100th anniversary of World War I, the Programme Committee has organized the roundtable plenary:

From Sarajevo to Versailles, and far beyond: Environmental History and the Centennial of World War I

Moderator: Tait Keller, Rhodes College

Roundtable participants:
Marco Armiero, KTH Royal Institute of Technology
Dorothee Brantz, TU Berlin
Damien Baldin, Mission du centenaire de la Première Guerre mondiale
Richard Tucker, University of Michigan Ann Arbor

ESEH Incoming Board Meeting
19:00 – 20:30
Room G003
FRIDAY, 3 JULY

Session 8
09:00 – 10:30
8-A Poster Session
Amphitheater J

Each presenter will make a 3-minute presentation about the poster on display throughout the conference.

1. Brisbane: Floods, Drought and a Dam
   Margaret Cook, University of Queensland
2. Eating the Ohio: Environmental History, Food Studies, Water Quality and the Consumption of Seafood and Riparian Plants along the Ohio River, USA, 1400-2010
   Laurel L Cornell, Indiana University
3. The Rachel Carson Center's Environment & Society Portal: Environmental History in the Age of Digital Humanities
   Susanne Darabas, Rachel Carson Center
4. History, environment and television: Vision and genesis of the nature's representation
   Michel Dupuy, Institut d'Histoire Moderne et Contemporaine
   Elodie Charrière, University of Geneva
6. Rachel Carson's landscape and the "insurrection of subjugated knowledge"
   Isabelle Freda, Hofstra University
7. Analysis of Forest Land-Use Change based on historical cadastral communities
   Matej Gabrovec, Slovenian Academy of Sciences and Arts/Anton Melik Geographical Institute
8. The great snowfall of 1888 in Asturias (NW Spain): methodology and results of a multidimensional analysis
   Cristina García-Hernández, Jesús Ruiz-Fernández, and Marta Herrán-Alonso, University of Oviedo
9. Biological Invasions in a Biological Valley: chestnut culture and invasive pathogens in the Alta Val di Vara, NW Italy
   Robert Hearn, Università degli Studi di Genova
10. The transformation of a 19th century industrial factory in a green area of great ecological value (Asturias, Spain).
    Marta Herrán-Alonso, Cristina García-Hernández, and Jesús Ruiz-Fernández, University of Oviedo
11. Agrobiodiversity, Food Security, and Public Health on the Hopi Indian Reservation since 1930
    Tai Elizabeth Johnson, University of Arizona
12. From Conquest to Domestication: Discourses and Practices of the Arctic Development in the USSR, 1930-1970
    Ekaterina Kalemeneva, National Research University Higher School of Economics
13. The Laki eruption and strange weather phenomena in the German territories in the summer of 1783
    Katrin Kleemann, Freie Universitaet Berlin
14. Hewers of Wood: Biomass energy in Canadian agro-ecosystems, 1850-2010
    Joshua MacFadyen, University of Saskatchewan
15. An endless sediment story: the first five decades of the Canal de Marseille (Southeastern France, late 19th century)
    Nicolas Maughan, Aix-Marseille University
16. Big Science Fiction: Discourse about nuclear fusion research in the United States
    Simon Mård, Rachel Carson Center
    Martin Meiske, Rachel Carson Center
18. The Amerikan Steppe: Influences on the Great Plains from Russia and Ukraine
    David Moon, University of York
19. Future Generations and Forestry in French Political Language, 1830—1848
    Julia Nordblad, Uppsala University/HESS
8-A Poster Session (continued)

Auditorium

Each presenter will make a 3 minute presentation about the poster on display throughout the conference.

20. The European non-native range of Argentine Ant: from the 19th century onwards
   Ana Isabel Queiroz, Univ. NOVA de Lisboa
21. The Saimaa Channel: Environment As An Imperial Instrument
   Mikhail Pitatelev
22. (Re)shaping the disaster story: public writing on disasters in post-war Czechoslovakia (1945-1950)
   Pavel Raška, J. E. Purkyně University in Ústí nad Labem
23. Human adaptation to a mountain space. The case of Cabrales (Picos de Europa National Park, NW Spain)
   Jesús Ruiz-Fernández, Marta Herrán-Alonso, and Cristina García-Hernández, University of Oviedo
24. Fishing in the Pskov-Chudskoye Lake in the 16th century: the Participants and Profitability Elena Salmina and Salmin Sergey, Archaeological center of Pskov region,
25. Historical use of the ‘wild’ in Greece according to ‘manners and customs’ of local inhabitants
   Eirini Saratsi, University of Exeter
26. The New Scandinavian Wolves - Preserving by Transforming in the Age of Biodiversity?
   Håkon B. Stokland, Norwegian University of Science and Technology
27. Significance of Medieval Disputes on Land Boundaries in Landscape History: The Example of the Cegléd Disputes
   Márta Tóber, University of Szeged and Andrea Kiss, Vienna University of Technology
28. Nature Writing as a Source for Environmental History
   Kadri Tüür, University of Tartu, Estonia
29. Snails in the herbarium: Sergei Korzhinskij’s malacological observations and their significance for reconstruction of paleolandsapes
   Maxim Vinarski, Omsk State Pedagogical University
30. Landscape in the shadow of the Iron Curtain
   Jiri Woitsch, Czech Academy of Sciences
31. Is it Nature or not? Natural motifs on old seals.
   Klara Woitschova, Charles University in Prague
32. Time, Space & Nature: the geographer’s “uneasy triangle”
   Graeme Wynn, University of British Columbia

Environment & History Editorial Board Meeting
09:00-10:30
Room G003

Coffee Break
10:30 – 11:00
9-A The Ethics of Planning Energy in the Anthropocene, 1960s - The Future
Room 1
Organizer: Bo Poulsen, Aalborg University
Session Chair: Finn Arler, Aalborg University

The Contested Triangle: Energy between Sustainability, Market and Security in the European Union
Mogens Rüdiger, Aalborg University
Think globally, act locally. Second order impartiality at work in the history of two energy companies
Stephanie Erlenbach, Aalborg University
The Political Turn in Discourses on Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) and Energy with a Purview to Two Danish-based Global Corporations, c. 2004 to 2014
Kristian Højer Toft, Aalborg University

9-B Media, Architecture and Global Environmental Imaginaries
Room 2
Organizer: Daniel Barber, University of Pennsylvania
Session Chair: Daniel Barber

Learning By Playing: Cartoons for Everyone
Caroline Maniaque, Universite Paris- Est
Media Environments: Icebergs on Screens
Rafico Ruiz, McGill University
Umdenken Umschwenken: On Visual Communication as a Tool for the Development of an Ecological Consciousness among a New Generation of Architects
Kim Foerster, ETH Zurich
The Nature of the Image: Eco-Diagrams in Architecture
Daniel Barber, University of Pennsylvania

9-C Environment and Property: The Governance of Water Resources in 18th and 19th Century Europe
Room 3
Organizer: Fabien Locher, CNRS-EHESS
Session Chair: Fabien Locher

Growing in Stormy Waters: The Dynamics of Property Conflicts on Irrigation Systems in Milan and its Region (19th century)
Michela Barbot, CNRS-IDHES ENS Cachan
“How Can You Sell Water if You Don’t Own it?” Ownership and Water-supply in 18th- and 19th-century France
Frédéric Graber, CNRS-EHESS
The Owner under Stress: Collective Organization and Water Governance in the Eighteenth Century France
Raphael Morera, CNRS-CERHIO
Water in Revolution between Private Appropriation and Commons: Shared and Competing Regulations of Water in post-1789 France
Alice Ingold, EHESS-CRH

9-D An Ecological Turn in the USSR? Environmental Awareness in Late Soviet Politics and Society
Room 4
Organizer: Laurent Coumel, CERCEC, CNRS
Session Chair: Klaus Gestwa, Tübingen University

Ecological Mobilization and Landscape Protection on the Upper Volga River: Patrimonialization of Nature in the Late Soviet Period
Laurent Coumel
Conflicting Interests: Land Degradation, Conservation, and Herders in Late Soviet Kazakhstan.
Isabelle Ohayon, CERCEC, CNRS
Soviet Expertise and the Aral Sea as a Global Environmental Object
Raphael Jozan, Laboratoire Techniques, Territoires et Sociétés (LATTES)
Comment
Julia Herzberg, Freiburg University
9-E Roundtable: BRICS and environmental history – common challenges and historical narratives
Room 5
Organizer: Eunice Nodari, Federal University of Santa Catarina
Moderator: Christof Mauch, Rachel Carson Center/LMU
Participants:
Julia Lajus, National Research University Higher School of Economics, St. Petersburg
Lise Sedrez, Federal University of Rio de Janeiro
Jane Carruthers, University of South Africa
Fei Sheng, Sun Yat-Sen University
Ravi Rajan, University of California at Santa Cruz
Eunice Nodari

9-F Missing Link? Causal Connections of Environmental Shocks and Human Calamities
Room 6
Organizer: Timo Myllyntaus, University of Turku
Session Chair: Andres Tarand, University of Tartu
Linking Weather to Violence: Climate, Crop Failures and Conflicts in Late-medieval Sweden
Heli Huhtamaa, University of Bern/University of Eastern Finland
The Causal Factors of Famines in a Comparative Perspective: An Analysis of the Seventeenth-century Famine Crises in Finland and Estonia
Martin Seppel, University of Tartu
Malthus in a Swedish-Finnish Trap? Evaluating the Importance of the Economic Margin for the Survival in Agrarian Finland
Timo Myllyntaus

9-H Monasteries and the Environment I: Exploiting Natural Resources – Shaping Landscapes
Room 8
Organizer: Chantal Camenisch, University of Bern
Session Chair: Christian Rohr, University of Bern
Environment and Economy on the Bank of the River Sarine: The Monastery of Hauterive in the Late Middle Ages
Chantal Camenisch
The Vanishing Wood – Augustinians Canons, Land Exploiters in the Late Medieval and Early Modern Venetian State
Attilio Stella, Tel Aviv University
Ecclesiastical Landscapes: Landscapes of Risk?
Maïka De Keyzer, University of Antwerp
Alexei Kraikovski and Margarita Dadykina, European University St. Petersburg

9-I Other Tools, Other Narratives Film Showing
Room 9
Organizer: Marco Armiero, KTH Royal Institute of Technology
Ogni singolo giorno [Every single day] (53 min., Italy, 2014)

Lunch Break
12:30 – 14:00
FRIDAY, 3 JULY

Session 10
14:00 – 15:30

10-A Uncovering the Environment in Popular Imagination
Room 1
Organizer: Amy Hay, University of Texas - Pan American
Session Chair: Melanie Arndt, Institute for East and Southeast European Studies
Toxic Landscapes in the Popular Imagination
Amy Hay, University of Texas - Pan American
The Stories We Tell About Pesticides
Michelle Mart, Penn State University, Berks Campus
"Greening" Popular Music
Arielle Helmick, Rachel Carson Center for Environment and Society

10-B Networks, Socio-Economic Modeling and Modern Applications for Environmental History
Room 2
Session Chair: Wilko Graf von Hardenberg, University of Wisconsin, Madison

Behind the Blue-green Baltic Sea – A Network Approach to the Environmental History of Phosphorus and Nitrogen Fertilizing in Finnish Agriculture 1945–1995
Ottoaleksi Tähkäpää, University of Turku
Environmental History Helping Knowledge and Management of Floodings
Nicolas Holleville, Université de Haute-Alsace
Modelling Vienna’s Historical Wood Resources and Wood Demand
Severin Hohensinner, University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences Vienna (BOKU)
Historical Development Paths, Socio-economic and Cultural Issues in Risk Management in Two Coastal Communities
Grit Martinez, Ecologic Institute

10-C Science and the Spatiality of Conservation in the 20th Century
Room 3
Organizer: Raf De Bont, Maastricht University
Session Chair: Patrick Kupper, Universität Innsbruck
Space and Science on Conservation’s Islands: The Case of the Galapagos
Elke Ackermann, Leibniz-Institut für Europäische Geschichte
Extinct in the Wild: Finding a Place for the European Bison, 1919-1945
Raf De Bont, Maastricht University
Creating the Model Savanna through Science: Decolonization, Western Conservation and the Making of the Serengeti Research Institute in the 1960s
Bernhard Gissibl, Leibniz-Institut für Europäische Geschichte
Comment
Jane Carruthers, University of South Africa

10-D The Perpetual Echo of Unresolved Problems: Urban Ecology in Russia
Room 4
Organizer: Olga Malinova-Tziafeta, St. Petersburg University of Foreign Economic Affairs, Economics & Law
Session Chair: Christian Rohr, University of Bern
Cleaning the Urban Environment: Achievements, Routines and Conflict in Leningrad (1917-1991)
Olga Malinova-Tziafeta
Georgios Tziafetas, University of Tuebingen
The Echo of a Natural Disaster in City Culture and Art: the Cases of St.Petersburg and Lisbon (end of the 18th-19th cc.)
Olga Roussinova, European University at St.Petersburg
FRIDAY, 3 JULY
Session 10
14:00 – 15:30

10-E Roundtable: History and Disaster Studies: What’s Next?
Room 5
Organizer: Tim Soens, University of Antwerp/Utrecht University
Moderator: Kathleen Pribyl, University of East Anglia
Participants:
Bruce Campbell, Queen’s University Belfast
Guido Alfaní, Universita Bocconi Milan
Eleonora Rohland, Foundation for Global Sustainability, Zurich/Institute for Advanced Study in the Humanities, Essen

10-F Global Histories of Nineteenth-century Leather Tanning
Room 6
Organizer: Andrew Watson, York University
Session Chair: Jim Clifford, University of Saskatchewan

Water and Leather in Context: Water Control, Conflict and Industry in Guimarães, Portugal (1880s-1950s)
- Cristina Joaoan de Melo, Universidade Nova de Lisboa
- Francisco Costa, Universidade do Minho

Hemlock Democracy: New York Leather and the Invention of the Gilded Age, 1812-1870
- Nickolas Perrone, University of California, Davis

Using Digital Tools to Track Nineteenth-century Leather Tanning Supply Chains
- Andrew Watson

10-G Protecting Wildlife or People?
Room 7
Session Chair: Isabelle Freda, Hofstra University

Saving Lives by Destroying Beasts: The Campaign against Wild Animals and Venomous Snakes in Colonial India, 1870-1920
- Felix Eickelbeck, University of Heidelberg

The Prophet's Song: Changing Attitudes in Human-Animal Relationships—the Case of the Tree Frog
- Rob Lenders, Radboud University Nijmegen

Human Attitudes and Urban Biodiversity: a Historical Perspective
- Timo Vuorisalo, University of Turku

Socio-environmental Conflicts around the Araucaria Forest in State of Paraná – Southern Brazil
- Alessandra Izabel de Carvalho, State University of Ponta Grossa

10-H Monasteries and the Environment II: Rough Wilderness, Silent Contemplation and Early Mining Industries in Monastic Writing
Room 8
Organizer: Chantal Camenisch, University of Bern
Session Chair: Chantal Camenisch

The Ever-Flowing Fountain and Bernard of Clairvaux’s Perfection of Nature
- Jason Crow, Louisiana State University

Nature and the Hermits of the New Monasticism
- Isabella Bolognese, University of Leeds

Mining, Writing, Archiving: An 18th Century Friar on the Edge of Empires
- Sabrina Peric, University of Calgary

10-I Experimental Session: An Environmental Historian Among Activists, and Other Tales
Room 9
Organizer: Marco Armiero, KTH Royal Institute of Technology and Gregg Mitman, University of Wisconsin Madison

This experimental proposal aims to give a space within the ESEH conference for those who have been working at the edge with activists and communities. We would like to share stories of relationships between scholars and activists in the making of environmental history research. The session will not have a definite list of speakers; instead, we propose to open up a space inside the ESEH conference where those who have experienced collaborations with grassroots groups can share their stories, as well as challenges, successes and failures.

Coffee Break
15:30 – 16:00
FRIDAY, 3 JULY

Session 11

16:00 – 17:30

11-A Greening Visual History
Room 1
Organizers: Mirjam Gebauer, Aalborg University; Robert Groß, AAU Klagenfurt; and Silke Vetter-Schultheiß, TU Darmstadt

Session Chair: Martin Knoll, University of Salzburg

Small Travellers – Big Impact. Analysing Landscape Images on German Stamps, 1950 to 1990
Silke Vetter-Schultheiß

Robert Groß

Negotiating Landscape Stereotypes in Marlen Haushofer’s novel The Wall and Julian Pölsler’s film adaption
Mirjam Gebauer

Comment
Anna-Katharina Wöbse, Umwelthistorische Recherche

11-B Histories of Connectivity: Researching Pathways of Energy and Water Development in the UK
Room 2
Organizer: Marianna Dudley, University of Bristol
Session Chair: Peter Coates, University of Bristol

Following the Flow: Researching Recreational Histories of Modern Water
Mirriana Dudley, University of Bristol

Energy (Dis)Connections: The Development of Landscape ‘Rights’ and Energy Production Realities in South West England since the 1870s
Jill Payne, University of Cambridge

Restoring Flow? Horizontal, Vertical, and Temporal aspects of Water Conflicts in the Peak District
Carly Van Lieshout, University of Nottingham

Fluvial Pathways: Forging Geographic, Social, Economic, Ecological and Cultural Connections within the River Tyne Catchment
Leona Skelton, University of Bristol

11-C Doing Interdisciplinary Environmental History
Room 3
Session Chair: Simone Gingrich, Alpen-Adria-Universität Klagenfurt

Reflections and Suggestions on Multiple Disciplinary Collaborations for Environmental Historians
Simon Pooley, Imperial College London

Humanities and the Identification of Coastline Vulnerability: a Desirable Shared System
Inês Amorim, University of Porto

Interdisciplinary Approach to the Study of Historical Charcoal Production and its Impact in the Environment
Susanne Klemm, Archeology and Communication AT

Soil Stories: An Interdisciplinary Approach to the Environmental Legacies of the Second Agricultural Revolution
Dino Güldner, Klagenfurt University

11-D Landscapes of a New Law: Creating State and Nation in the Environment
Room 4
Organizer: Roberta Biasillo, Università di Bari “A. Moro”
Session Chair: Stefania Barca, Universidade de Coimbra

Reframing Forests for a New State: Privatization and Reforestation in Italy during the 19th century
Roberta Biasillo

The Pyrenees Line: Landscape Militarization during the Autarkic Period of Francoist Spain (1939-1959)
Santiago Gorostiza, Universidade de Coimbra - European Network of Political Ecology

Greening the History: Discourses of Nation, Ecology and Environmental Protection in Contemporary Japan
Kati Lindström, KTH Royal Institute of Technology / University of Tartu

11-E Roundtable: Environmental Science and Narratives in Popular Communication
Room 5
Organizer: Katarina Larsen, KTH Royal Institute of Technology
Moderator: Miyase Christensen

Participants:
Anna Åberg, EHESS France
Miyase Christensen, Stockholm University / KTH
Katarina Larsen
Patrick Murphy (via video), Temple University
Anna Svensson, KTH
11-F Of Power and Pathways: Energy and Landscapes in Mobile Environments
Room 6
Organizer: Victor Seow, Cornell University
Session Chair: Mathieu Flonneau, Université Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne
Trolleybuses and the European Cityscape: Energy Choices under Environmental Pressure (London, Paris, AND Rome, 1930s)
   Arnaud Passalacqua, Paris Diderot University
   Automobility and Geographies of the Car in French Colonial Indochina
   Stéphanie Ponsavady, Wesleyan University
Running on and out of Alternatives: The Charcoal-Powered Automobile in Transwar China
   Victor Seow

11-G Sacred Practice and Nature in Religious Societies: Dealing with Climatic Threat in the Middle Ages
Room 7
Organizer: Thomas Labbé, Université de Bourgogne/Technische Universität von Darmstadt
Session Chair: Thomas Labbé
Religious Practices Related to Climate in Metz (circa 1400–1525)
   Laurent Litzenburger, Université de Lorraine
   Processions and Climate in Besançon (1438-1515): a Case Study
   Thomas Labbé
   Weather in Late Medieval Alsace: Holy Concept and Ritual Management
   Linnea Rowlatt, University of Kent/Freie Universität Berlin

11-H Long-term Changes in Greenhouse Gas Emissions from Agriculture
Room 8
Organizer: Manuel González de Molina Navarro, Universidad Pablo de Olavide
Session Chair: Gilles Billen, CNRS
   Josette Garnier, CNRS Metis and Gilles Billen
   Historical Evolution of Greenhouse Gas Emissions Derived from Olive Grove Management in Central Italy
   Antonio Brunori, University of Perugia
   Historical Greenhouse Gas Emission Balance of Spanish Agriculture, 1900-2008
   Eduardo Aguilera, Universidad Pablo de Olavide

11-I Experimental Session: Environment and History: Chewing over the Field after 20 years
Room 9
Organizer: Karen Jones, editor of Environment and History and Sarah Johnson, White Horse Press
In this special session we will be taking a look at the work produced for the anniversary issue of Environment and History (published November 2014) on the occasion of the journal's 20th year to think about what the assembled 'think' pieces say about the discipline of environmental history, its directions and challenges in 2015. The session will involve short presentations from some of the contributors to the special issue along with a short commentary from other experts.

Book Auction
17:30 – 18:00
Room 9
ESEH will hold a Silent Auction for copies of some books available for sale at the publishers’ tables during the conference. Proceeds support ESEH activities. Payment accepted only in cash in Euros. Drinks provided by Environment and History.

Conference Dinner
19:00 – 21:00
La Petite Venise, Place d’Armes, Jardins du château de Versailles
Pre-registration required.
ESEH will award our biennial prizes at the dinner: Turku Book Prize, ESEH Article Prize, and Best Poster Prize. ESEH will also recognize recipients of travel and small workshop grants.
Thanks to everyone who has served in ESEH’s organization from 2013 to 2015:

Board Members:
Dolly Jørgensen, President
Julia Lajus, Vice-president
Bo Poulsen, Vice-president
Wilko Graf von Hardenberg, Secretary
Ulrich Koppitz, Treasurer
Stéphane Frioux, CRR Chair and RR France
Christian Rohr, RR German Speaking Countries
Inês Amorim, RR Portugal
Ulrike Plath, RR Baltic states
Ian Rotherham, RR Britain and Ireland

Council of Regional Representatives:
Tom Brooking, Australasia
Adriaan M.J. de Kraaker, Benelux countries
Hrvoje Petric, Croatia
Pavel Chromy, Czechia and Slovakia
Vaso Seirinidou, Greece
Dénes Sálata, Hungary
Giacomo Parrinello, Italy
Mikko Saikku, Nordic countries
Tomasz Samojlik, Poland
Stefan Dorondel, Romania
Alexei V. Kraikovskii, Russia
Jelena Mrgic, Serbia
Sandra Swart, South Africa
Pablo Corral, Spain

Financial Control Committee:
Martin Knoll
Dominik Collet

Nomination Committee:
Jan Oosthoek (chair)
David Moon
Mikko Saikku

Conference Site Selection Committee:
Marco Armiero (chair)
Ulrike Plath
Poul Holm

Editorial Committee:
David Moon
Dolly Jørgensen

Program Committee:
Ellen Arnold (chair)
Bo Poulsen
Federico Paolini
Martin Schmid
Kathleen Pribyl

ESEH Travel Grant Committee:
Carry van Lieshout (chair)
Christian Rohr
Peter Szabó

Summer School Committee:
Patrick Kupper (chair)
Inês Amorim
Rosalinda Ruiz Scarfuto
Santiago Gorostiza
Ekaterina Kalemeneva

Communications Committee
Tomasz Samojlik (chair)
Wilko Graf von Hardenberg
Merle Massie

ESEH Article Prize Committee:
Etienne Benson (chair)
Stéphane Frioux
Petra van Dam

Turku Book Prize Committee:
Helmuth Trischler (chair)
Robert Emmett
Patrick Kupper
Julia Lajus
Finn Arne Jørgensen

Poster Prize Committee:
Verena Winiwarter
Ian Rotherham
Giacomo Parrinello

Arcadia Project:
Julia Lajus
Finn Arne Jørgensen
Christof Mauch
Timo Myllyntaus
Verena Winiwarter
Wilko Hardenberg
Call for Proposals: ASEH 2016 Conference in Seattle

The American Society for Environmental History invites proposals for its next annual conference in Seattle, Washington, USA, 30 March – 3 April 2016. The theme is “Environmental History and Its Publics.” Seattle is one of the USA’s most beautiful and most walkable cities. The conference will include more than 10 field trips to local sites, including Snoqualmie Falls and Mt. Rainier, two plenary sessions, several workshops, and 100 sessions. Deadline for submitting proposals is 8 July 2015. See: http://aseh.net/conference-workshops/seattle-conference-2016/call-for-proposals