Turku Book Award 2017

Updated 25 October 2016

The European Society for Environmental History (ESEH) and the Rachel Carson Center for Environment and Society (RCC) are pleased to announce the Turku Book Award in environmental history. The Turku Book Award is intended to identify and encourage innovative and well-written scholarship in the field of environmental history and carries a prize of € 3,000. The prize will be awarded at the Ninth Biennial ESEH Conference to be held in Zagreb, Croatia, 28 June–2 July 2017.

To be eligible, books must be single-author and have been published in 2015 or 2016. Books may be nominated by authors, publishers, or members of the ESEH. Preference will be given to books that focus on Europe and/or to authors who are affiliated with European institutions.

Applicants are asked to submit three copies* of the monograph by mail to the Rachel Carson Center in Munich, as well as a digital copy (preferably a PDF file) to assistants@carsoncenter.lmu.de. If the monograph is written in a language other than English, please include a one-page English summary.

Monographs must be received by 31 January 2017. The committee consists of:

- Verena Winiwarter (Chair; Alpen-Adria-Universität Klagenfurt)
- Jane Carruthers (University of South Africa)
- Arielle Helmick (Rachel Carson Center)
- Stefan Dorondel (Institute for Anthropology Francisc J. Rainer)
- Ellen Arnold (Ohio Wesleyan University)

Rachel Carson Center for Environment and Society
Turku Book Award
Leopoldstrasse 11a
80802 München
Germany

* We realize that for some publication models (e.g. print on demand, open access), it may be difficult to supply three hard copies of the monograph. If this is the case, please get in touch with us via carsoncenter@lmu.de and we will advise further.